Subject: Discussion on and formaldehyde assessment (IRIS Toxicological Review of Formaldehyde (Inhalation))

Dear Barbara and Andrew,

Thank you very much for the interesting discussion; we are already looking forward to the next one!

As promised, we send you the NL draft document on the limit value for formaldehyde (Paul is currently working on this):

Here is link to all documents from REACH Harmonized Classification and Labelling (CLP) process:

Here are two documents from CLP (link above), which might be the most interesting for you:

Here is the link to the public documents for REACH Substance Evaluation process. The deadline for the Conclusion Documents on the general public indoor exposure and worker exposure is October 2018.
